

Bulletin of Kagoshima
Prefectural Archaeological Center

From JOMON NO MORI

No. 1 CONTENTS

A Study about the Latter Half of Backed Knife Culture Period in Kagoshima Prefecture
Kuwahata Takeshi

Prehistorical Sites and Traces of Paths
-A Case Study of Jomon Earliest Period in South Kyushu-Hanjo Masayuki

Polished Arrowheads in Jomon Earliest Period
Miyata Eiji

A Memorandum about an Assortment of Potteries with Shell-impressed Decorations in South Kyushu
Kurokawa Tadahiro

A Further Consideration on Ishizaka-type Potteries
Maesako Ryoichi

The Significance on the Appearance of Jar-shaped Potteries in Jomon Earliest Period
Shinto Koichi

A Ring-Pattern of Remains Left and Distributed as a Feature
Excavated in Uenohara Site no.10 Location
Yagisawa Ichiro

An Analysis on Use-wear and Sickle-gloss of Stone Reaping Knives
Nagahama Koji

A Supplementary Examination about the Hypothesis that the Uneven Waving Ground is a Trace of Oxen and Horses' Passing Higashi Kazuyuki

Relics of the Edo Era Excavated from a Hill Fort in the Middle Ages
Dogome Hideto

An Outline of Information Management System and Information Opening to the Public about Buried Cultural Properties
Takami Kenji

Kagoshima Prefectural Archaeological Center
March 2003

